*NOTE – Just because a horse appears on here does not mean I'm suggesting it should be backed. A lot of these angles I use as way's in/starting points and the angles all have varying levels of strike-rates attached to them.

Ben's Thoughts

THEOTHERSIDE (R Hannon Jnr) hasn't won since landing a C2 over Course & Distance last July but the filly has shown signs of life on her last two starts and could be about ready to strike again. Conditions are Prime for her here (OR 81 or less | 6f | Good+ | 7 or more runners = 41211 (3/5, 1p - all 3 career wins)), she's won or placed all 4 starts on Good to Firm (form of 1213) and this looks a good spot for her.

WITHHOLD (R Charlton) struggled to get an uncontested lead at Sandown last time out and couldn't get to the lead from his wide draw at Chester the time before that and as such ran accordingly. He shouldn't, however, have any problem getting to lead this field as he looks the only front-runner in the pack and that makes him of interest. He's 2lbs below his last handicap winning mark, which came over this CD in 2019, and Oisin Murphy back in the saddle is a positive as he's 1 from 1 on the horse and has a fine record for Charlton on horses that start at around 8/1 or less...8/22 | 36% S/R | +£23.62 BFLSP – W&P 15/22 | 68% S/R – 57% above exp. Charlton also seems to have his runners in good shape right now, with 2 of his last 3 runners reaching the winners enclosure.
